Hail Alma Mater, To Thee we sing,

Our love and admiration to thee we bring . . .

Noble sons and daughters laud thee to the skies,

Hail to our Alma Mater, Camelback High School.

Hail to Camelback High

Foreword

Bill, You're a real great guy and have a fine personality. Good luck with those college gals! Your friend, Dave S.

Bill, Lots of Luck in future! Bob Vaeck -61

What is past is prologue,* said Shakespeare.

The past year at Camelback is just the beginning of college or the work of a new job for graduating seniors. To the juniors, it means that they are now mighty seniors. The underclassmen have moved closer to becoming graduates.

The hard work and play enjoyed here is now past for '60-'61 and we are glad. However, we will need this past experience in the days to come — in every new beginning.

The happy times we will want to recall with fond memories . . . that is the purpose of this book: to help you relive some of the now bygone hours.

We call upon three loyal Spartans to guide you forward. They are the Merry Spartan Three and they have much to show you — so hasten now back to the past which is prologue!

Bill, Lots of Luck in the future! Lazo

DEDICATION

We dedicate this book to a man who has been associated with yearbooks ever since he came to Phoenix more than a decade ago. Camelback salutes him as the founder of the SHIELD. It was under his enthusiastic leadership that guided the SHIELD through its first six years of successful publication.

He has been recognized as one of the leading yearbook sponsors in the state. For two years he served as president of the Arizona Interscholastic Press Association. He has been a regular instructor on the staff of the annual Publications Workshop at Arizona State College, Flagstaff. Year after year, he has lectured at conventions on photography and yearbook production.

Mr. Garrett began his teaching career in Texas when only 17 years old. The years in between have convinced him that teaching is the best work of life. Please accept this small token of our esteem not only for service to Camelback but for all the students you have taught,

Mr. H. P. Garrett

Senior students in child guidance get actual practice in taking charge of small children. Paul Faulkner is playing with two of the children enrolled for the human relations play school.

The art program gives students an opportunity to obtain practical experience and to delve into specific facets of arts. Students in Mr. Wood's advanced art study the depth and perception of a composition rather than just the mechanics of drawing.

SENIORS

Doug Smith, vice president; Mary Shumway, treasurer; Mary Ann McCue, secretary; and Danny Fraijo, president.

Serving their class in its grand finale were these loyal senior officers. They led their class in such a variety of activities . . . from selling class pins to organizing the senior ditch day and the all-night party.

We bid them farewell with a fond wish for a bright and successful future. Don't forget us and come back often — especially next Homecoming.

Biel-
I have really enjoyed having you in English and government. You're really a tough guy. But I'll wager you do, I hope to see you this summer, I'll may cause we live pretty close. Well you look for you're Ford & you're yellow plymouth so bright

This year's Junior Class, under the leadership of its four officers, has made itself one of the most outstanding Junior Classes that has ever existed at Camelback. Because the Junior Class was so closely knit together they were able to have a very successful candy sale, which enabled them to hold their Junior-Senior Prom at Mountain Shadows.

Some of their other activities for this year were donating $325 to the American Field Service and helping entertain the children at Sunshine Acres. They also sponsored a sport's dance after one of the games.

These Juniors will soon be proud Seniors and will continue to be one of the most outstanding classes ever at Camelback.

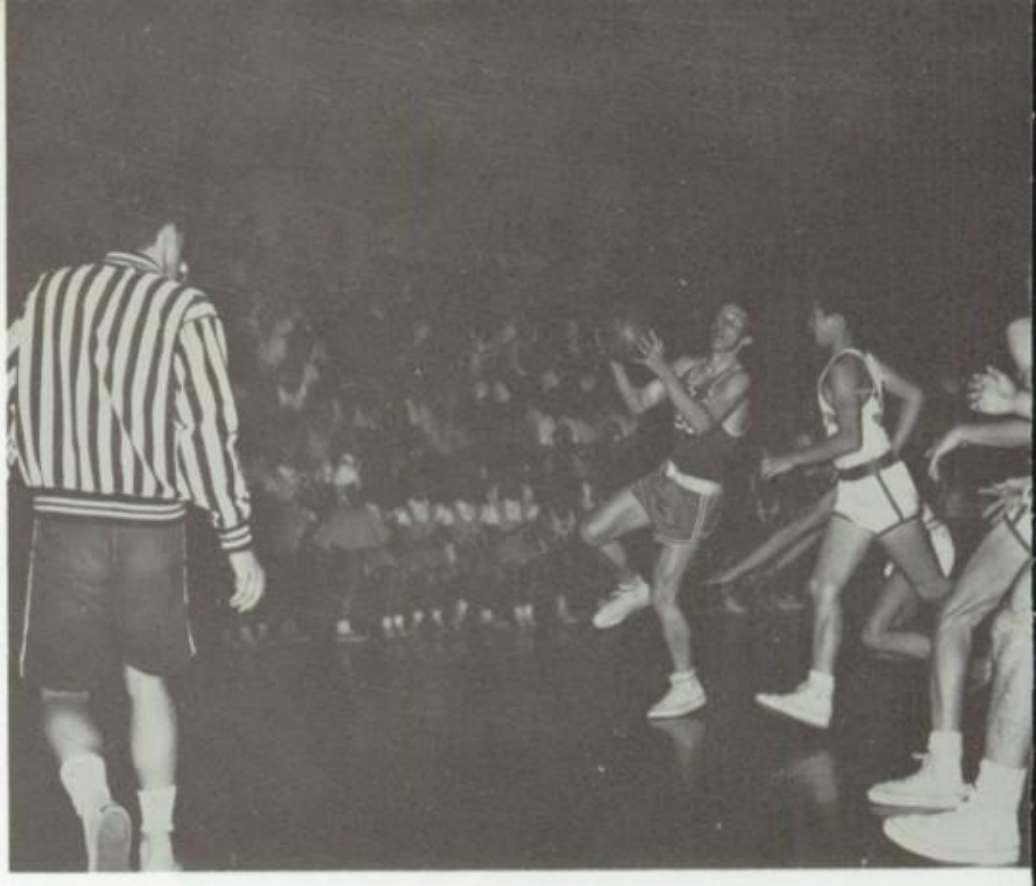
Katha Brown triumphantly holds the basketball used at the game. Team effort was needed for this endeavor as the rest of the pompon line can testify. Supporting the remainder of the group are Jan Maddox, Barbara Wassel, Alison Freeman, and Barbara Alford. Katha is perched on top of Sandi Simpson, Carol Hanagan, and Dea Etta Strickland.



Bart Hughes watches carefully as the freshman-soph more game begins. Bart and Eddie Gardner refere at the Basketbrawl. Although the game was very clos the sophomores won 63-57.

Jim Pearson, Tom Sanders, Dick Anderman, Pete Banko, Mike Roc well and Doyle Meredith proudly pose in outmoded cheerleadi attire. Their duties at the Basketbrawl included leadi cheers, making as much noise as possible, a hamming it up in gener

BRAWL

Cheerleaders and pom pon girls alike look on with dismay as an unidentified pseudo cheerleader attempts to get in the game.

FRESH

This year's Freshman Class started off its four years of higher learning with a sponsor new to Camelback, Mr. Bernard Morris.

With his help, the class of '64 produced and directed a new traditional affair: the freshman-sophomore basketbrawl. This activity was the highlight of the year except the sophomores beat the freshmen in their own game. The Pompon girls know how the freshmen felt because the cheerleaders racked up more points than they. The male cheerleading line provided some lively antics for all.

Other activities and services include sponsoring a dance after the Yuma football game and a contribution to the foreign exchange program. With the spirit shown by our youngest Spartans and a hefty treasury, this enterprising class promises to go far.

Tri-Tanda

It was a grand induction slumber party.

"To Serve," the tri hi y motto, was not only the motto but the goal of Tri Tanda. Through their service projects and activities, the group has become an outstanding "Y" group at Camelback. President Cathy Butler has led the group in such fund raising projects as the annual AFS dance, from which the procedes go to sponsor a foreign exchange student, marching for the City of Hope, the Polio Fund, and the Cancer Foundation. A Christmas party was given for the Bethany Rest Home and an Easter party given at the Crippled Children's Home. Other projects include a Car Wash and the booth at the Spartan Holiday. Other officers are Barbara Alpert, vice president; Donna Walker, secretary; Dottie Becker, treasurer; Diane Kraemer, chaplain; Sally Stevenson, sergeant-at-arms; and Judy Hall, historian.

QUO DEO

Car washes, bake sales, selling potato chips and candy to help various charitable organizatiions, are just a few of the many projects Quo Weo has accomplished. The picture on the right shows Quo Deo's annual Mile of Dimes Drive. Freshmen donated the most with juniors, seniors, and sophomores next. Parties, car parades, joint meetings, and devotionals are a few of the social activities Quo Deo also takes part in. The last school function of the year — the annual signing party — a club sponsored affair. The officers this year included: Donna Clyatt, first semester president; Mary Ann McCue, second semester president; Pam Dyer, vice president; Ann Scarla, secretary; Jaki Laney, treasurer; Kay Roush, historian; Marilyn Kump, sergeant-at-arms; and Yvonne Prevratil, chaplain.

Oki Hi Tri Hi-Y

Oki Hi has adopted the Golden Gate Settlement Home as its year - round project. They provided Halloween treats, a Thanksgiving basket, Christmas gifts which included a camera, sewing machine, and material. In April a picnic was given for one of the Girl Scout troops. During the year they had special speakers, worked at the Easter Seal society, and held a successful car wash. The proceeds from the booth in the Spartan Holiday were donated to the March of Dimes.

Officers include: Susan Cochrane, secretary; Pat Vogt, president; Donna Nicholson, historian; Judy Dudra, treasurer; Jan Mastin, assistant treasurer; Sharon Habib, vice president; Sandra Cameron, sergeant-at-arms; and absent Ingrid Moline, chaplain.

Sceptre Hi-Y, started three years ago, has quickly earned a high place as an active service club on campus. It was organized for the purpose of stimulating the minds of Camelback boys with high ideals and ambitions. Sceptre has for the past three years assisted in the Don's Trek program. Other club activities have included sponsoring the annual Hi-Y basketball tournament, the Sceptre Hi-Y dance, and a squeezy sale held in March.

Olympian Hi-Y

Olympian can boast of living up to the Hi-Y purpose — to serve. Its numerous accomplishments include the "Beat North" tag sale, serving at the P.T.A. Ham Dinner, participation at the model legislature, the Decathalon, Hi-Y basketball tournament, Keep the Kampus Kleen campaign, and the photography booth at the Spartan Holiday. Their donations to school projects were the Homecoming crowns, Christmas snow man, and an A.F.S. pledge.

A Capella Choir, which meets third period, has been busy this year. They sponsored three special music groups: Boys' Quartet, Ensemble, and Girls' Trio. Singers for Madrigals were also selected from this group.

Members sold Mason's candy to finance a trip to Tucson and All-State choir at Flagstaff. The organigation also had the "Dunk the Choir" booth at the Spartan Holiday and appeared at several assemblies.

Officers this year were Bill Nelson, vice president; Wendy Tuch, secretary; and Bill Steele, president.

Concert Choir is a three-part girls' chorus and is under the direction of Miss Jean Ziebell. The group made several appearances at school assemblies and sang at the annual PTA Christmas program. Also at Christmas time, they went caroling at several of the valley hospitals. Choir members gave the band a helping hand by ushering at the Bill Page concert at North High.

Serving as Concert Choir officers were Connie Sampson, vice president; Linda Sadler, president; and Mary Beth Moore, librarian. Missing from the picture is Louise Greeland, secretary.

CONCERT CHOIR

Girls Trio

The Girls' Trio was a hit at the PTA Christmas program, which was the first public performance for the girls. Since then, they have had other appearances, including one at a Parents' Music Club meeting.

The trio membership includes Barbara Miller, Suzi Springer, and Stanna Niemcyzk.

Ensemble

The largest of the three special groups is ensemble, which is made up of a capella choir members. The ensemble performed at the Christmas Assembly, accompanied by the entire choir. They also gave Christmas programs at both the Phoenix Country Club and the Arizona Country Club.

Boys' Quartet

Known as the Barbershop Quartet or the "Untouchables," this group has provided a lot of fun and entertainment for the Spartans. They made their debut at the Christmas Assembly, where they sang "Winter Wonderland." They also appeared at the Band Concert at Encanto Park.

The four lonely bachelors are Tom Roger, Bill Nelson, Bill Steele, and Frank Bramwell

Madrigals

Madrigals is a group formed by Mr. Grant Jenkins for especially talented members of A Capella. These gifted singers audition for membership in the organization. They sang at the Band and Choir Concert and have had several private performances. As Mr. Jenkins was occupied with the band during the football season, the group did not get organized until late in February. The table in the picture signifies the origin of the Madrigal: A Seventeenth century custom of a family song fest around the table after dinner.

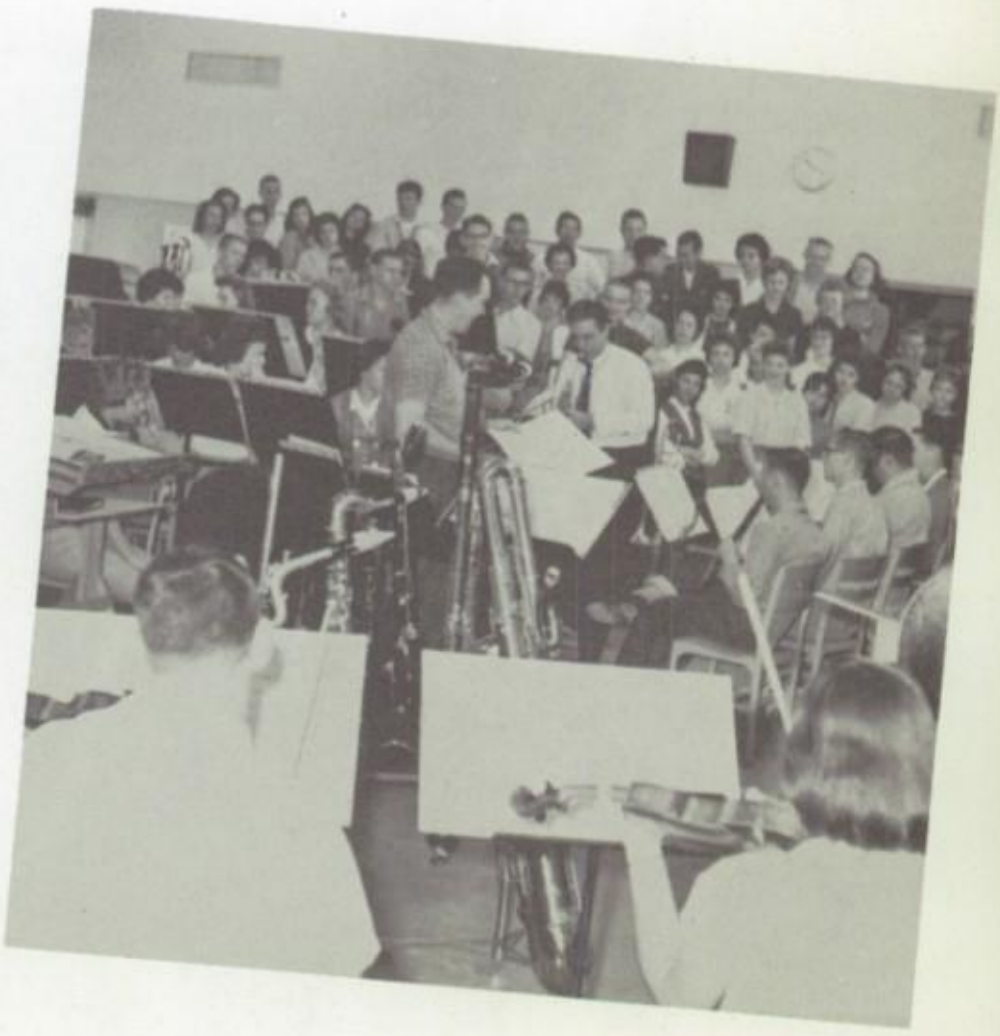
This was an especially big year for the Spartan Band in two ways. As a result of big event number one; the Bill Page Concert, big event number two; a trip to Disneyland, took place. The band also painted house numbers on curbs to swell the Disneyland fund.

In spite of all this activity, they found time to appear at not only Spartan assemblies, but also at several private performances including the PTA Christmas Program, a Band Concert, a concert at the State Fair, and a concert at the Encanto Park Bandshell. The Band manned the sponge throw booth at the Spartan Holiday.



The A Cappella choir listens to a rehearsal with Bill Page, performer on the Lawrence Welk show, for his concert with the Spartan Band.

Philatelic Society

A new organization on campus this year is the stamp club. Regular meetings to study and exchange stamps were held. The president of the Phoenix Philatelic Society was present at one meeting to lecture.

Officers

Leading Key Club this year were Bud Greene, secretary; Bob Dorn, president; Steve Morgan, vice president; Mr. Roy Ratts, sponsor; and Bob Poynter, treasurer.

A club well known for its many service projects and activities is the Key Club, sponsored by Kiwanis International. This year's main project was a city-wide auto show held on the campus park area. It was the biggest event ever sponsored by a single club. The proceeds of this show benefited the American Field Service. Key Club is the only group on campus which sponsors a foreign exchange student entirely.

Other activities accomplished included maintaining the library, cleaning the Spartan emblem on the gym, and the Keep the Kampus Kleen campaign. The boys also assisted in the car inspection program sponsored by the Phoenix Jaycees and Look magazine.

For years, one of the leading clubs on campus has been Sparteens. No exception this year, the girls have completed numerous projects. The annual "Share Their Fare," a school dance, and a slumber party were huge successes. Sponsoring a needy family at Christmas was an unforgetable experience for all concerned.

Heading the club this year were (seated) Lennis Lyon, secretary; Nancy Hamay, president; Charlotte Kwic, vice president. Standing: Mrs. Behnam, sponsor; Carole Andersen, reporter; Kathy Lollar, chaplain; Janet Myers, historian; Barbara Kwic, sergeant-at-arms; Barb Osowski, treasurer.

Masque and Gavel

Masque and Gavel, an honorary national organization of speech and drama students, plays a large role in affecting the culture interest at Camelback. Besides sponsoring the school plays, Masque and Gavel also holds an intraschool speech tournament in the spring. Incentive is given to aspiring students by trophies and honors which Masque and Gavel present to top drama and speech participants at their annual awards banquet in May.

Robie Allen and Gil Awalt enjoy the music at the initiation dance. Also pictured on the dance floor are Robin Gillett, Pam Reed, Carol Mathe, and Ted Armack.

These editors stop for a few minutes between journalistic duties. They are president, Betsy Yost; vice president, Rick Oellers; secretary, Gary Howell; and Robie Allen, treasurer.

Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for high school journalists, is composed of staff members from the Shield and Spartan Blade. Eager hopefuls must be juniors, have a 2.00 average or better, and have done outstanding work for a school publication.

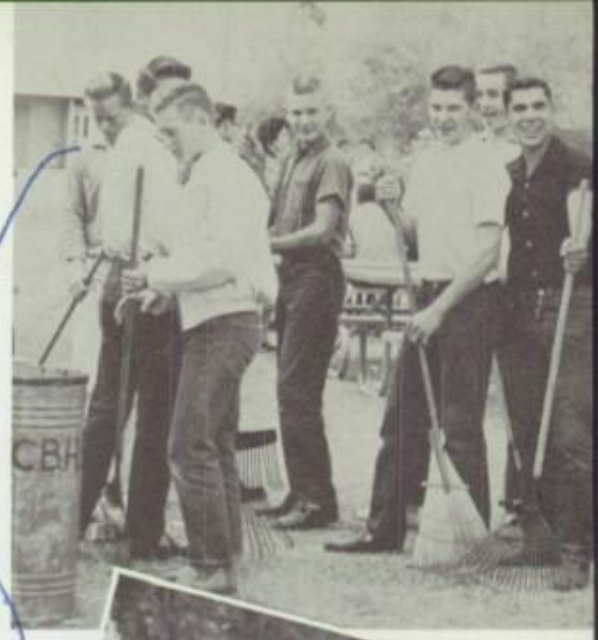
Safety Council

Camelback's Traffic Safety Council has met its purpose of promoting traffic safety by observing Traffic Safety Week, which included a voluntary safety check of the students' cars. Traffic Safety Council is the local Chapter of an organization reaching to a national level. It needs you to help in its work and growth.

King's Club Officers: Tom Sanders, secretary; Dick Anderman, member of the board; Phil Varney, vice president; Chuck Chrisman, crown buster; Ron Harvey, president; Bill Nelson, member of the board; Bob Woodford, king tamer; Jim Pearson, member of the board; and Mike Rockwell, treasurer.

The King's Club was chartered in 1959 and since that time has provided many worthwhile activities for junior and senior boys. It is a service organization sponsored by Lions International and has the motto "We Serve." King's sponsored the locker shelf sale and the fruit cake sale. A first for the club was the sponsoring of the annual Beachcombers' Dance. Proceeds from the dance and other activities are donated to the American Field Service program.



Contributing to the Keep the Kampus Klean campaign is one of King's service projects.

Latin Club

Carole Byer, treasurer; Kice Brown, president; Donna Murray, secretary; and Pam Reed, vice president.

The purpose of the club is to study, discuss, and demonstrate phases of Roman culture and its influence on present day living. Several members attended the ASU Forensic tournament held at Tempe. The group also went to see the motion picture spectacular, "Ben Hur."

Orchesis is a dance group whose purpose is to study abstract expression in a moving form. Miss Linda DeWeitt teaches her students freedom of thought in producing and dancing in their own dances. Girls are selected from beginning dance classes. Their annual concert this season was featured the theme "Women." The group appeared regularly in school assemblies.

Mary Anna Sasser, treasurer; Karla Cornelison, vice president; Shiela Hunter, parliamentarian; Miss Linda DeWitt, sponsor; Di Freeman, concert chairman; Jo Taylor, secretary; Nancy Hamay, historian; and Cherrie Barnd, president.

MATH SEMINAR

The German speaking Spartans on campus have enjoyed some interesting programs this year through the Der Deutsche Klub. A successful Volkswagen wash started the group going. Members brought home five blue ribbons in the foreign language contest in Tempe. On the social side, there was a banquet at the Der Steiner Restaurant in Scottsdale and a picnic for the foreign exchange students in the valley. The girls prepared the German food. The students dressed in German costumes, and German music was provided to top things off.

Tim Carruthers took over as editor of the Shield at the end of first semester, succeeding Carole Neely. Many hours of work after school were required in finishing up the many fine details of the book.

Sports Editor Pete Banko completed the sports section which was so ably begun by Carole Neely.

Staff members Linda Nebeck and Sherry Smith found it fun to layout and paste-up pictures for the yearbook.

If you like the art work on the division pages in the yearbook you can express thanks to Robert "Woody" Woodford because he planned and drew them. Never one to be rushed, Bob turned in his drawings only three months after the assignment.

Tom Bell was borrowed from the newspaper staff to help with the advertising. Tom wants to make journalism his profession. He works hard and faithfully, and he is bound to succeed.

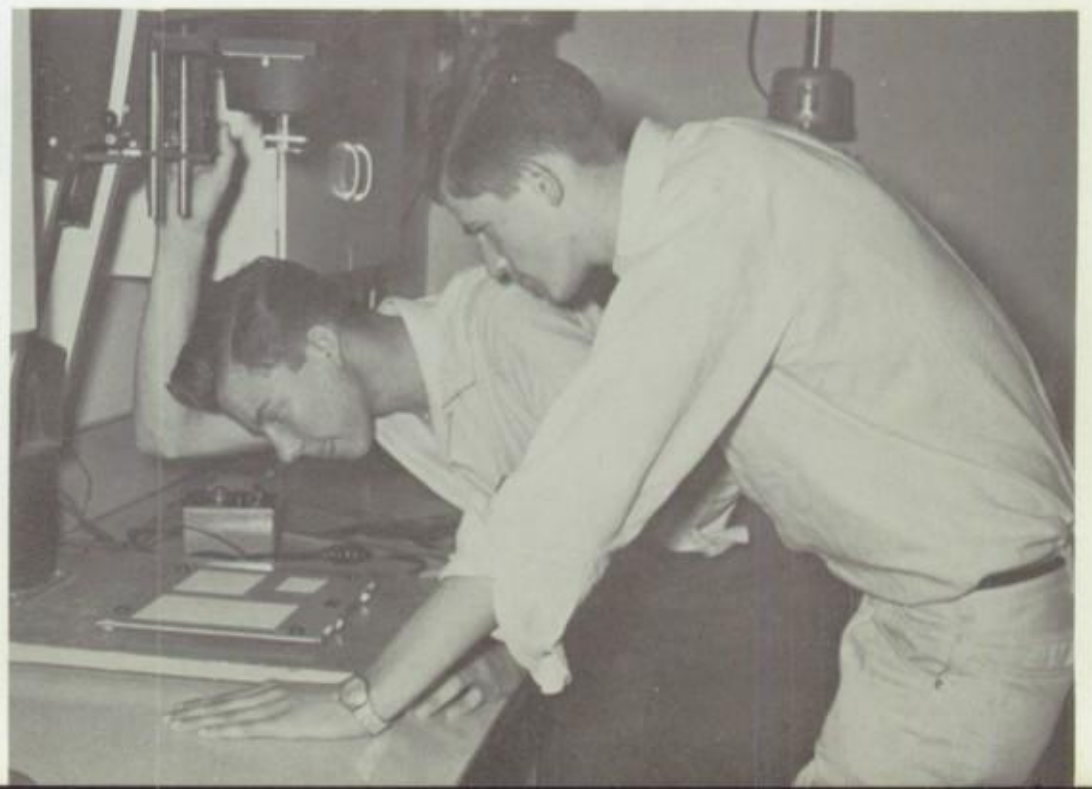
Photographers Dave Benton and Ed Ellis confer on enlarging a picture in the darkroom.



Gail Anderson, Robie Allen, and Rae Deanne Knight examine exchange papers in the Blade Office.

Editor Carol Litton checks the paste-up of a page before sending it to the printer. Carol was responsible for the editorial page and general direction of the staff. She was totally devoted to her job and had to take over when someone else failed.

Chuck Wagner, assistant news editor, explains the techniques of setting heads to Charles Pine and Bob Hooper, special writers.

Betsy Yost, news editor, had one of the most important positions on the staff. She was responsible for assigning and editing all news copy. And as is her way, she always found time to give some extra help when the time demanded it.

Handling sports this year were Ron Harvey and Ann Owen.

Demonstrating his talent in make-up to "Jenny" (Cindy Koshelek) is her boy-of-the-moment, Owen Parkside (Harold Stephens).

Diligently working on last minute technical preparatio is the crew of "Jenny Kissed Me."

Making a rather boistrous and effective entrance, Gary catches Kent and Cindy in a somewhat compromising situation.

Durinda Lofstedt gushes her old-maidish mannerism Elice Higginbotham as Gary Howell casts a disdai glance into the audience.

Camelback military men proudly display their all-city ROTC trophy as the centerpiece on their table at the annual Military Ball held in the Phoenix Union gym.

R.O.T.C. BALL

Swords held high, officers salute Pam Dyer, Camelback ROTC Princess, as she makes her entrance at the ball. Her handsome escort is Lt. Col. Carl Archer.

Veteran's Day Assembly

A highlight of the Veteran's Day assembly was the exhibition given by the Judo Club. Seated are Charles Turton, white belt; Norman McDowell, brown belt; Mark Bohlman, green belt; Vern Bohlman, green belt; Wade Wayland, brown belt; Ed McDowell, green belt; Richard Urban, brown belt. Brown belt Wally Bartlo throws Don Benns, also a brown belt.

Joyce Platner, Dottie Becker, Donna Warmanc, Kathy Sasser, Marilyn Klemmer, Nancy Poulsen, Denise Strickland.

Flag Girls

A newly formed group, composed of cheerleading and Pom pon classes, were the Flag Girls. The group performed some very intresting routines with the Band during pre-game and half-time activities at the football games. They also participated at the Basket Brawl.

Judy Donithon, Shirley Powell, Carolyn Diestler, Donna Carey, Marilyn Klemmer, Nancy Poulsen, and Denise Strickland.

R.O.T.C. Officers

Camelback's unit is designated as the fourth battle group of the Phoenix brigade. Last year the cadets of the "Fourth" ended up military night as the finest drill cadets in the state. Carrying this tradition of winning the competition in the Veteran's Day Parde. The Shield will go to press before this year's military night competition, but we are sure the cadets of Camelback will again bring honor to their school.

The faculty and students of Camelback paid tribute to Sgt. Clifford Sprinkle on his departure from Phoenix this spring. Under his excellent leadership, the corps has added many trophies to the battle group collection.

The faculty gave a reception on Sgt. Sprinkle's last day. Mr. Woodrow F. LeSueur presented a going-away gift on behalf of the school.

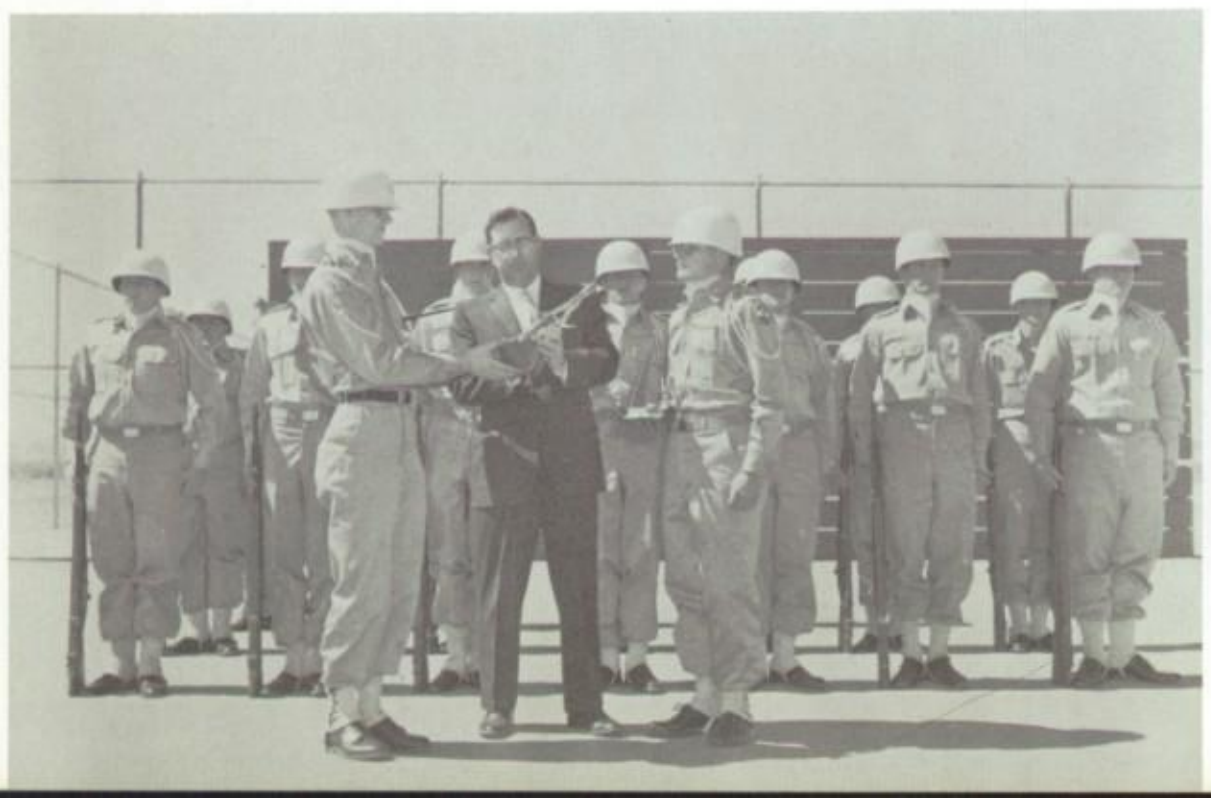
Drill Team

The Drill Team contributed to the Best Battle Group honors by becoming the state champion team. The activities of the team this year have included performances in assemblies both at Camelback and Central and competition at ASU. As the Shield goes to press we would like to wish luck to the team which is now preparing for military night.



Proudly showing their championship drill trophy to Principal John L. Tanner are Capt. William Miller and Capt. David Ashworth. The team, under the command of Cadet Miller, won the top honors at the first annual Arizona State University Pershing Rifles Drill meet. In the two divisions, the team won first in exhibition and second in regulation.

My Three Angels

"My Three Angels" is the uproarious story of a French shopkeeper's misfortunes in a penal colony. His eventful restoration to prosperity is effected by three good-natured and imaginative convicts and one agreeable reptile. Directed by Mr. James Harvey, the play enjoyed a highly successful three-day run.

The cast and student directors gather around the dining table to discuss last minute plans.

Checking the technical end of the production, students director Carol Litton points to a flickering spot. Seated are Wanda Stabbe, sound crew; Elice Higginbotham, lights; Margaret Ashby, student director; and Nancy Hall, props. Standing Carol Litton, student director; Lois Wilson, props; and Carolyn Groesbeck, props.

Phil Varney leans closer to further torment Vandi Clark, as his two cohorts, Bob Wagner and Gary Howell, look on approvingly.

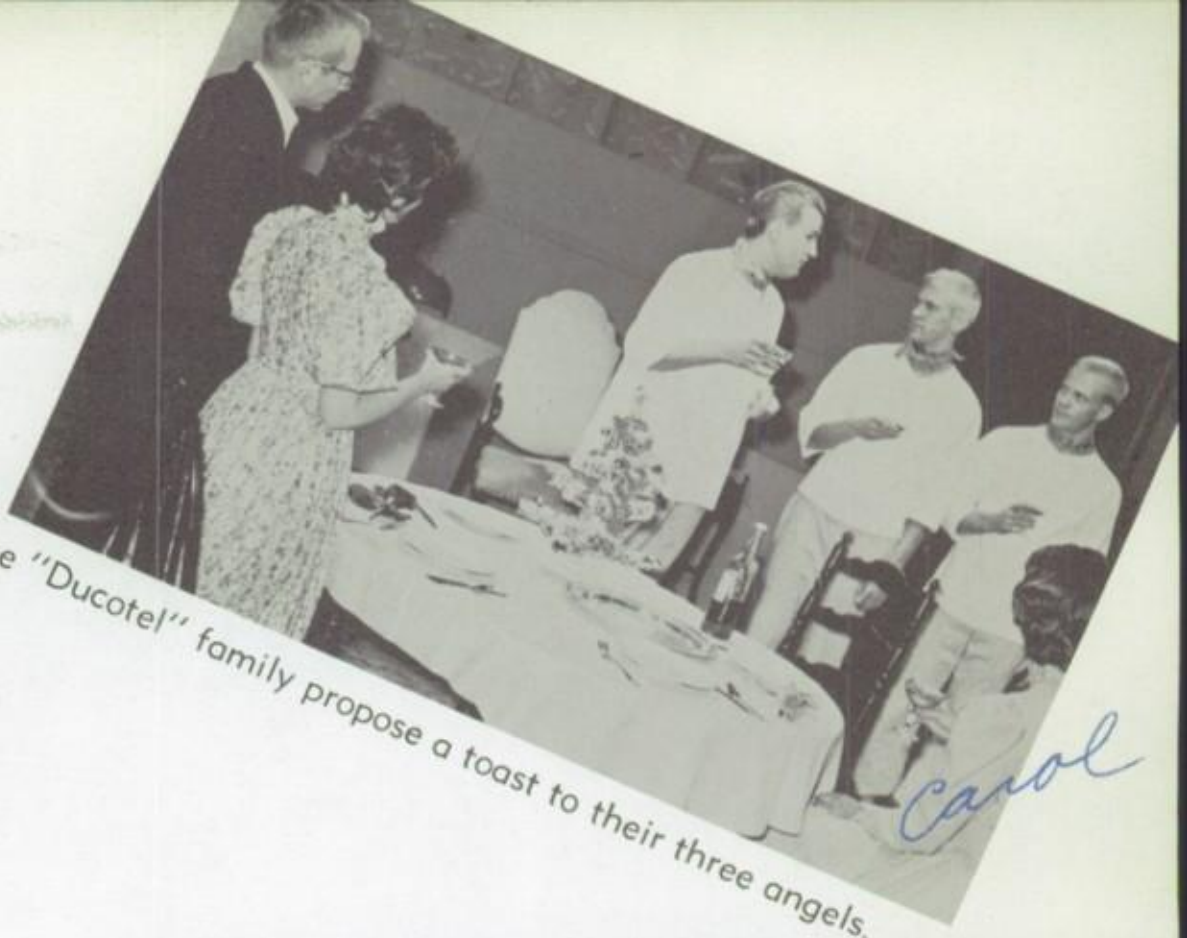
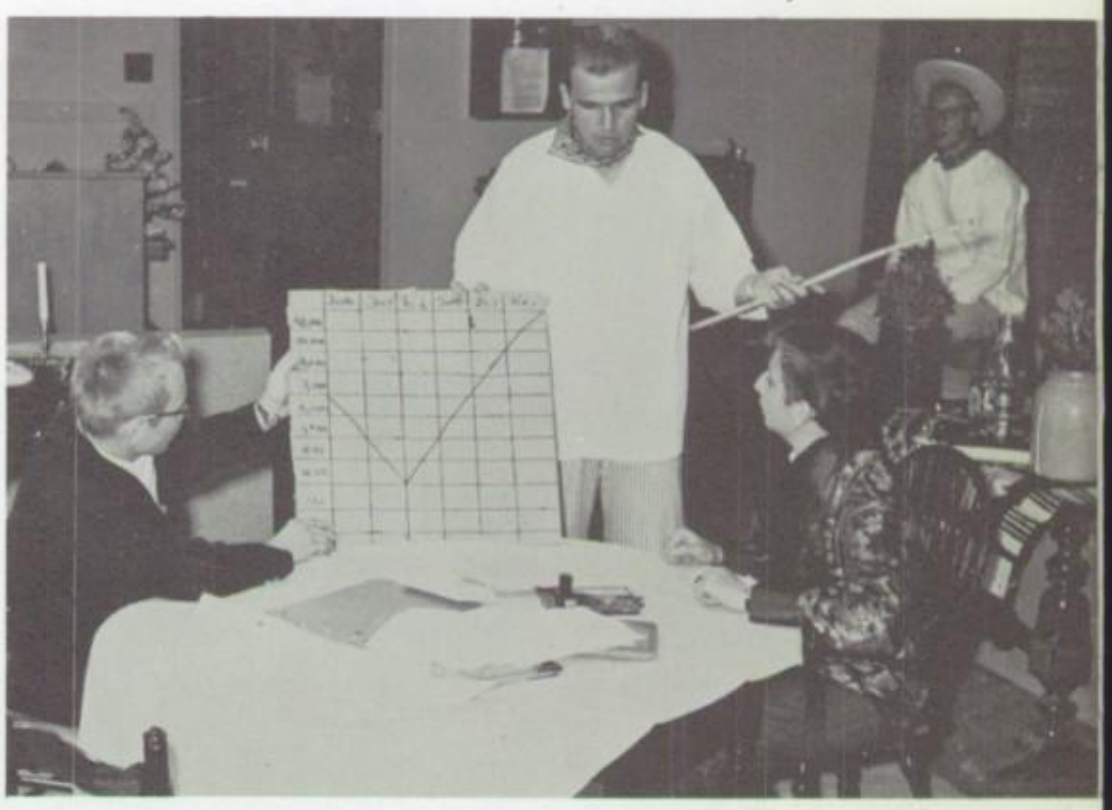
Convict Phil Varney

Convict Gary L. Howell



The "Ducotel" family propose a toast to their three angels.



Shopkeeper Keith Stott (seated left) discovers he has a bookkeeper as Gary shows a graph of business to financier Alan Levinson.

Prone on the floor after fainting, Sheila McCreary causes Carol Norton great concern, while the three convicts look in apprehensively.

Muscular Wagner foils a suicide attempt, carrying the unconscious maiden safely to her mother.

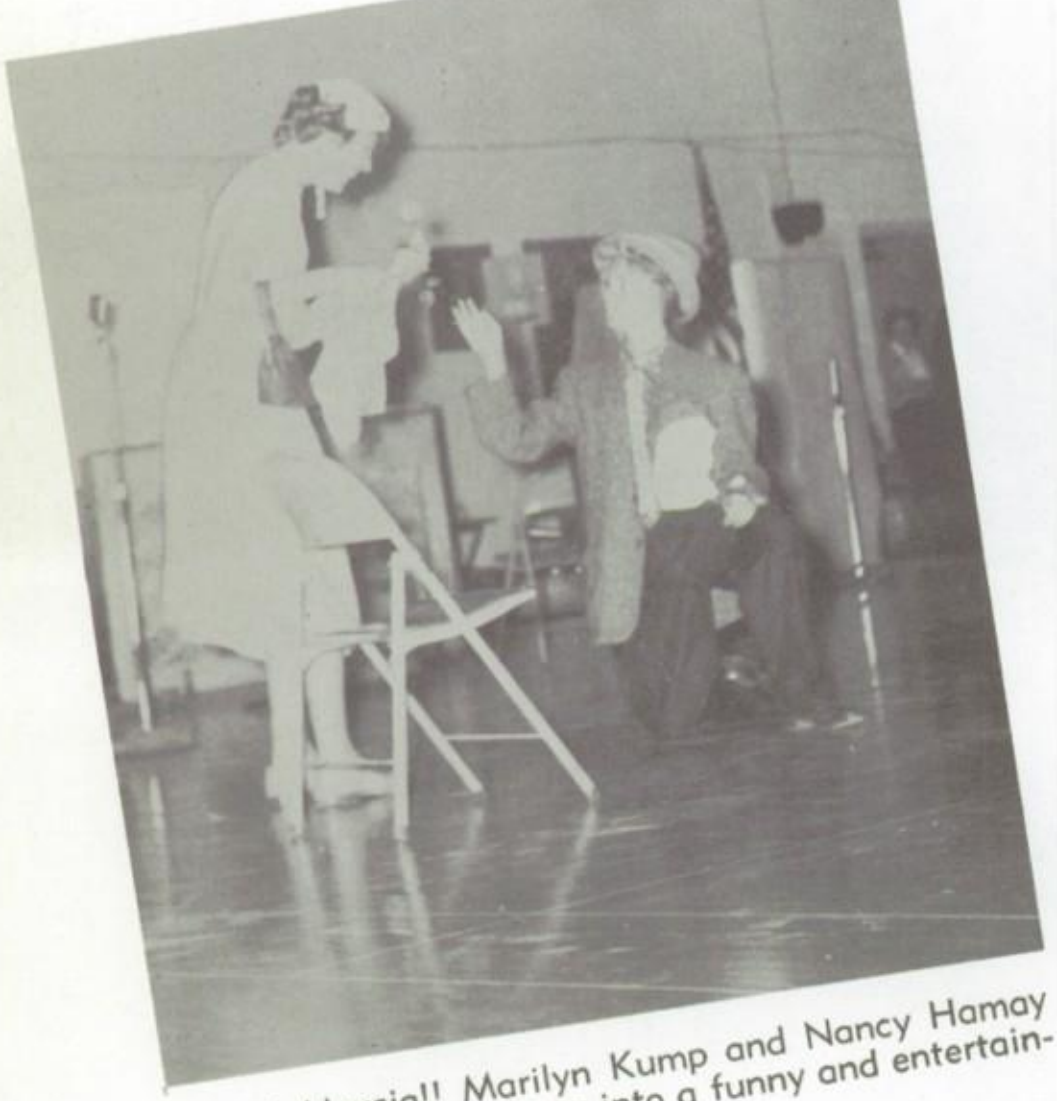
THIRD PLACE: Roger Ricketts captured third place with his accordion. Among his selections were "Don't Take Your Love From Me" and "Bumble Boogie".

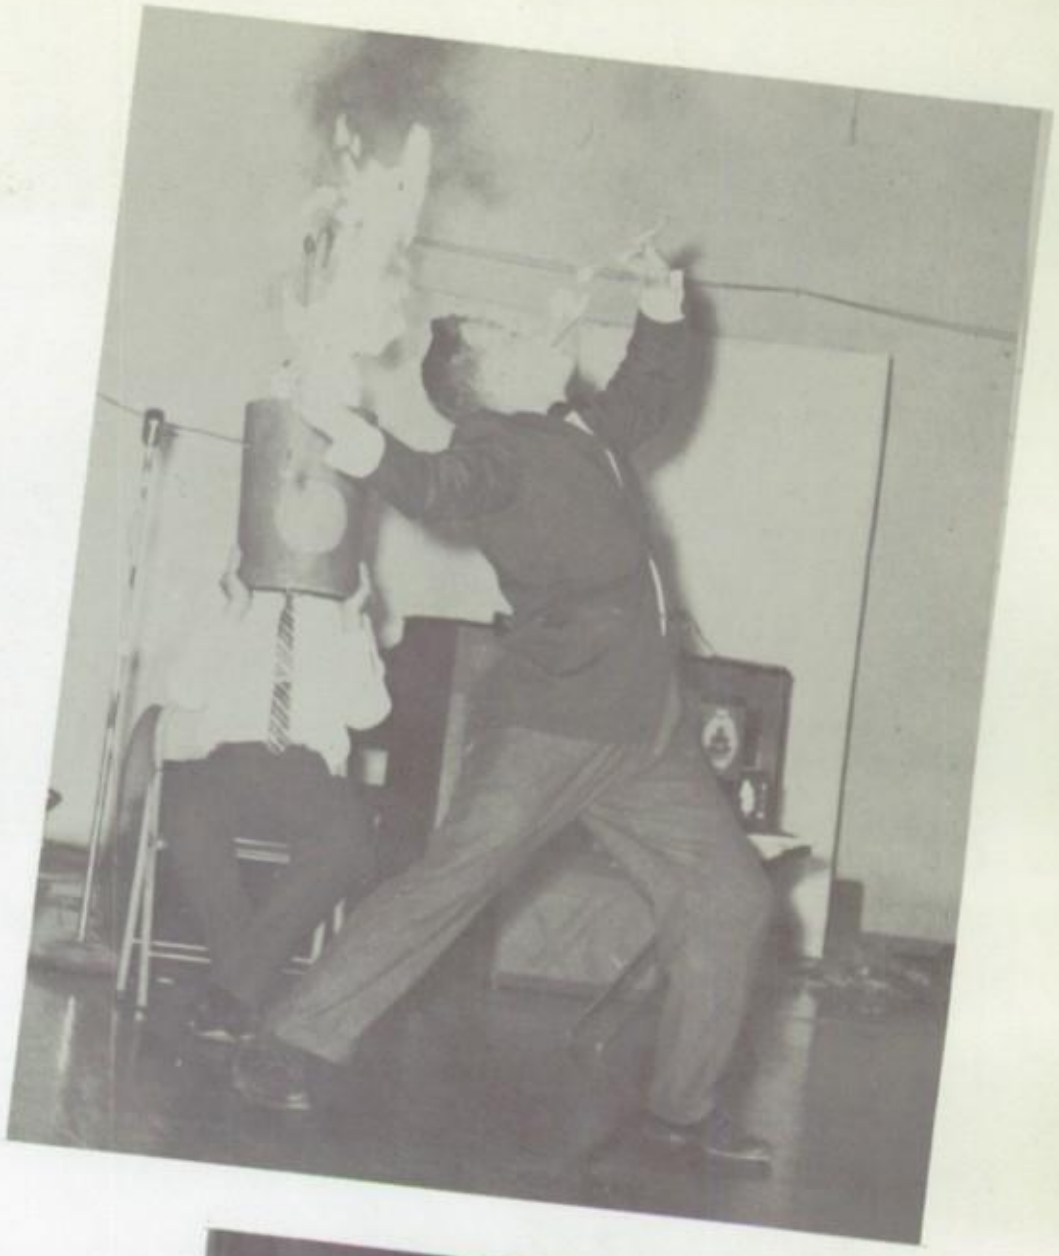


John! Marcia!! Marilyn Kump and Nancy Hamay put this familiar saying into a funny and entertaining skit.

Assembly

SECOND PLACE: Never before has "Granada" been so well done as by Shirley Holligan, our second place winner.

Fun! Mystery! Excitement! All were incorporated into the act of Randy Scoville. Skip Ludwig lost his head, and Bob Gosnell lost his pants.



THIRD PLACE: Nan Broderson, Jean Brinkerhoff and friend danced their way into third place in the assembly.

Mike Daugherty and Byron Metcalf put on a demonstration of the latest kind of duel, the drum duel.

Christmas

Practicing a routine for their Charleston number are Jeri Jacobs and Kathleen Willey.

Pausing a moment during their between-class trek, Spartans admire the mid-winter beauty supplied by Olympian Hi-Y. The Spartans are Rawlin Evans, Louise Bullard, Toni Kalil, and George Stillman.

Assembly

Exemplifying the old adage that all work and no play breeds monotony, Sherrie Smith, Bob Woodford, Carole Neely, and Charlene Graham add a bit of merriment to the decorating of the cafeteria Christmas tree.

Adorning the front window of the Administration building is a taste of Yuletide artwork, typical of the prevalent holiday cheer.

Enchante was not only the name of the annual Carnation Ball, but it was also the atmosphere created by the imaginative decorations, the lovely gowns worn by the girls, and the moods of admiration reflected in the boys' eyes at the sight of their beautiful dates. The members of Girls' League really out did themselves on this occasion.

Created by the Kings Club, the beautiful tropical decorations of the Beachcombers Dance added an unusual Polynesian atmosphere to Camelback's most unique dance of the year.

Grouped around the fountain are Bob Woodford, Rosyl Rowe, Charlene Graham, Steve Toma.

Observing the beautiful fountain is the Camelback Foreign Exchange student and a group of Camelback students.

Laughing happily after winning the best socks award are Marni Alsever and Jim Pearson.

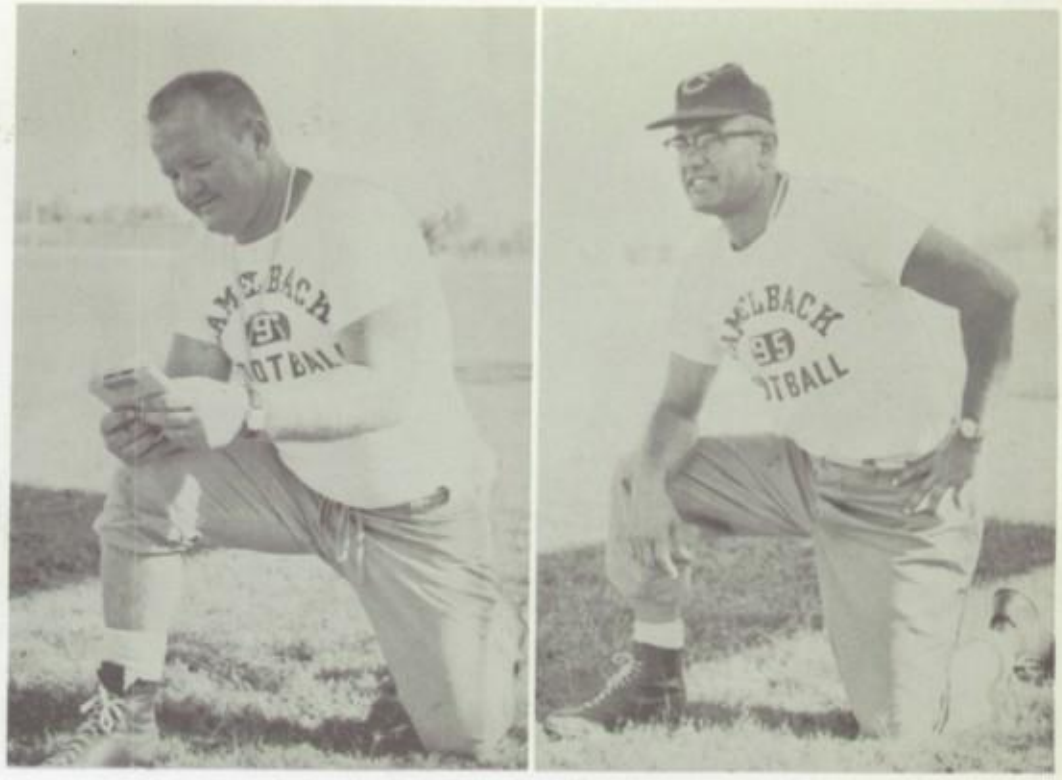
Tom Bates (69) makes a terrific blocker for Larry Hall (50), who charges through the opposition's line for the touchdown.



Head Coach George Endres and Assistant Coach Bob Beckett watch diligently and take notes of the plays as the boys run through another practice session.

VARSITY

The coaches and the school have a right to be proud of this year's team. They didn't know the meaning of the word lose, even though they never won a game. Fate seemed to be against these boys, but they never gave it a thought. The way they fought they should have won every game. They have shown true spirit and determination and we are truly proud.

Mike Caviness (10) fights through the opposition's line but is finally brought down. Bob Evans (58) makes an attempt to block the on-rushing men.

During the same game, just a few seconds later, Mike Caviness (10) makes another attempt to crash through the line.

Boys and Girls State

OFFICERS ELECT

A new year looms large in the future of these enterprising juniors. They must lead the entire student body through a coming new year in politics, in social life, as well as being the example of loyal Spartans.

March 10 was the crowning day for these new student body officers. They won election in the primary. Mary Wise will serve as corresponding secretary; Barbara Johnson, executive secretary; Jim Pearson, vice president; Mike Rockwell, financial secretary; and Dick Anderman, president.

ALL-STATE MUSICIANS

To be chosen to represent Camelback at the all-state music tryouts is itself an honor — to be chosen an all-state musician is an achievement of the highest order. Seated: Barbara Miller, Nancy Ash, and Marsha Williams. Standing: Allan Salt, Alan Cornelsen, Doug Cornelsen, and John Shipp.

Although spelling and pronunciation are different, Christmas means something special in every language as Dick and Junko found out when they compared notes and spent their first Christmas away from home.

American Field Service Students

Two more nationalities were added this year to the growing list of countries represented by Camelback's A.F.S. students.

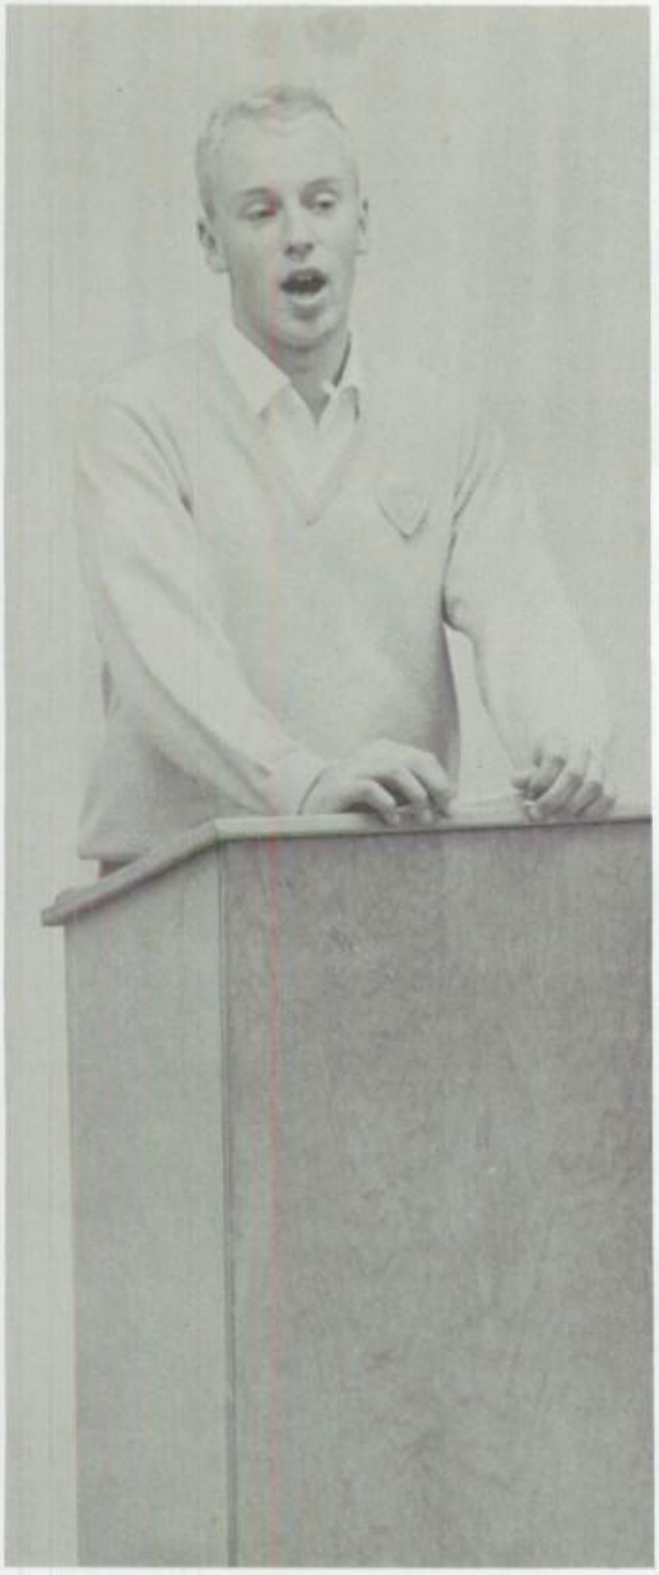
Holland provided our male foreign exchange student. Dick Prins studied to be a civil engineer in Wassenaar, Holland, and was active in a sailing club and president of a hockey club there.

His school, called Rijnlands Lyceum, numbered only 600, but was one of the largest in Holland. Dick was amazed at the number of cars driven by students here. He says bicycle is the means of transportation used by most students and some of the teachers in the Netherlands.

Dick has had little difficulty with the language and soon found he was thinking in English instead of Dutch. This year was some what easier than in his former school where fifteen subjects are taught in a day.

Dick was "adopted" by Tom Jenkins and his family. He and Tom are discussing the United States, Dutch, and Japanese customs with Charlotte Kwic and her adopted sister Junko Murata.

Junko studies some genuine wooden shoes. Dick had a hard time convincing Camelback students that they are still not a part of every day dress in his native Holland. In fact, these are the first pair of wooden shoes he has owned — purchased because he was coming to America. Junko is wearing a kimona in honor of Christmas. In Japan today, kimonas are reserved for special days and holidays.



AFS

Before she came to Camelback, Junko Murata was never before outside her country, Japan.

In a letter to Charlotte Kwic, Junko wrote, "I think to know English is to know the world." Beside her desire to speak English more fluently, she wanted to know American teenagers and understand family relations in the United States.

Although her religion is Shintoism, Junko studied Christianity at a Bible club in Japan so that she would be able to participate more easily in church worship here.

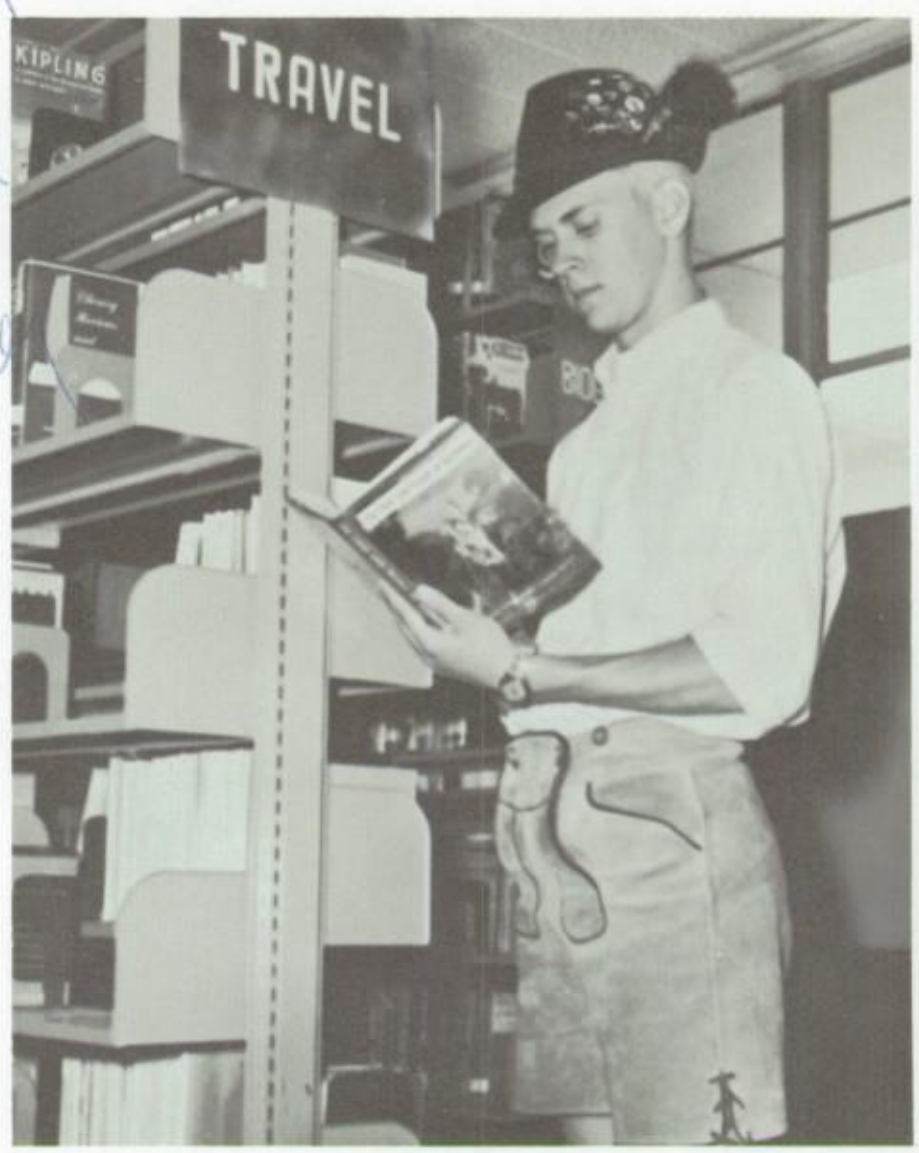
Junko says she really likes the friendliness and laughter of her American peers. According to her, the Japanese are more serious by nature.

A lucky recipient of this honor was Phil Varney, senior, who was chosen to represent Camelback in Berlin, Germany, for the summer session. Although the standards for exchange students are high, Phil had no trouble meeting them, with his high scholastic standing, his participation in extra-curricular activities, and his congenial personality.

SEES GERMANY

PHIL VARNEY

Not only does the American Field Service give enterprising students of other countries a chance to study and live in the United States, the A.F.S. also sponsors promising American students on trips abroad.



N. C. C. J.

Miss Betsy Yost

Salutatorian

Co-Valedictorians

Miss Susan Cochrane

Miss Carol Litton

These two senior girls ranked at the top of their class with a 1.00 grade average. Both plan to go on to college. After serving three years on the newspaper (this year as editor), Carol wants to study journalism. The $2,000 scholarship she won from the Republic & Gazette will certainly help along this line. Both girls have carried a heavy schedule of extra-curricular activities during their high school career.

Bill,
although we havent gone to the same school, we have become good friends, im happy to say. Its been a lot of fun
this past year, weve chalked up alot of wonderful memories,
never to be forgot.
I hope the fact that youre graduating wont end our friendship. You are a wonderful person,
Bill, and I owe you
alot for many things
among others, thanks for taking me home
those many Sunday nights
I hope you have a good summer in Kansas. Who knows, maybe well run into each other there. Until then,
May God Bless you Always,
Lindy McClintic "North"

Well Bill it looks like this is the end for you at school anyway. Oh well I hope you have a good time wherever you are.

Camelback High School students find that sinking a basket is easy when they use the right equipment. In this case, the equipment is the new Holan Elbow, normally used to hoist Arizona Public Service Company linemen to power lines or other high structures requiring their attention. As an example of automation saving time and money, the Holan Elbow has saved an average of $3,000 per month in time and labor since its initial use in 1959.

It has been a long and difficult year for the members of the Shield staff. Having all new staff members and a new sponsor brought many problems which caused long hours of class, after school, and Saturday work. We enjoyed this work and can say that under the circumstances we did the best we could.

I sincerely wish to give thanks to Mr. Forest R. Martin for his patience, and encouragement during the long hours he has devoted to helping us edit this book. Also I must thank the photographers who gave so freely of their own time in providing us with pictures. Special thanks is given to Bob Wilcox for his contribution of the royalty photographs, and also his enthusiasm for special favors when they were desired.

Mr. Garrett never failed to give his support when it was needed. He has our appreciation. Mr. Nobes of Desert Litho has our admiration for his patience with us in a new experience.

Mr. Garvey, our custodian, is counted one of our best friends. No matter what we needed or asked, he was always helpful and provided a kind word when we prized it most.

It would be impossible to mention here everyone who has contributed . . . may we say a sincere "thank you" to all those people who helped make this book possible.
